Prophecies foretold the truth, crushed under the weight of mounting evidence even the skeptics relinquish: the World is finally going nuts. From the smoldering ashes of reason a new age shall be born and surrounded by dementia there is no way out. Something must be done. Will you just sit there watching how the insane take control of the asylum? Or will you raise and join the ranks of a new race of the Deranged? Deranged is a line of clothing designed by and for the demented, a new sort of wacky wear for a loco living, the only proper apparel to ride the wave of madness that will engulf the world. Become an apostle of insanity and ride it. It will be crazy stuff!
